FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GF55 PARTNERS CELEBRATE 30 YEAR ANNIVERSARY RE-LAUNCHES WEBSITE

New York, NY (October 28, 2014) GF55 Partners, Architects and Interior Designers proudly re-launches its website, www.gf55.com in commemoration of the firm's 30th Anniversary. The re-designed website showcases GF55's evolving portfolio. Later this year a new section highlighting the firm's history will be included.

"We are proud to reveal the most recent GF55," said Partner David E. Gross AIA. "This represents where we are today and provides a glimpse into our future. "

The website focuses on architecture and interior design for Multi-Family Residential, Hospitality, Retail, Private Residential and Institutional projects. Current design explorations are found under the "In Design" section. The Publications and Awards section highlights the firm's achievements and includes a new Press Release page.

"With the website's re-design," said Partner Leonard Fusco AIA, "we set out to create a flexible site that will grow with the company and be updated in real time."

GF55 based in New York and Miami has completed over 4.6 million square feet of housing developments in New York City alone. "As architects that spearheaded the new Harlem Renaissance we are proud to see our work expanding to other regions," said Partner Shay Alster AIA. "We are committed to responsible community development and environmental sustainability."

Recently completed projects include several apartment buildings, a Bal Harbor penthouse, a Prairie style house renovation and a medical center.
